Telling You How I Feel

When I think about you and me –

When I think about us –

It's scary sometimes, you know?

It's scary to let myself trust.

It's scary to allow you in,

It's scary to believe in forever.

Sometimes I think you'll soon be gone.

Sometimes I think always will be never.

Sometimes I cry, assuming the worst,

Sometimes I fear that I've lost you.

It's then, when I doubt the most,

It's then that you always come through.

It's then that you show me the light,

It's then that I know I can trust –

When I think about you and me –

When I think about us.
